

Local Men Start Work Quadrennial Assessment

The assessors of all townships in Cook county started work on the quadrennial assessment of realty property this week. At the suggestion and with the cooperation of the county office, advisory committees have been set up in all villages and towns to assist the local assessor in determining fair values.

With the aid of permanent records compiled during late years, the various committees are able to sit around a desk and determine the values of buildings and land. There is no guess work about those figures, as they are based on approved tables.

The local committees aid in determining the basic figures and equalization of values. Zoning changes made by many municipalities will effect the new values that go into effect for the next four years.

Otto Busse, assessor of Elk Grove township, has appointed as members of his advisory committee (farm lands) J. P. Precht, Adolph Busse, (Mt. Prospect) H. M. Beer and I. E. Besander.

J. Fred Meyer, of Wheeling township will be assisted by Alfred Busse, Gus Behrens, Richard Ruge, Henry Burmeister and Geo. Kinchell for farm valuations. In Arlington Heights the committee is composed of J. D. Fentie and Geo. K. Holtz, in village of Wheeling, L. Volje.

Herman Lichthardt of Schaumburg township has a committee of Fred Pfingsten and Henry J. Freise.

H. H. Devermann of Palatine township, is being assisted by (farm) Dan Bergman, Fred Porey and Wm. Baumann (village) Wm. Kehe, T. C. Hart and H. H. Schoppe.

Mrs. V. A. Sturm
Heads Advisory Health Group

An earnest group of men and women interested in the maintenance of the present health service in Arlington Heights met Tuesday evening in the Arlington Heights village hall to form an advisory health committee to aid the regularly appointed board that is in charge of the health work.

Mrs. V. A. Sturm was elected chairman of the newly formed group which it is hoped to expand in membership to include representation of every organization in the city. "Health service is a vital part of community life in Arlington Heights," stated Mayor Fentie when he called the meeting; "and needs the cooperation and interest of every organization."

The citizens attending the meeting Tuesday night assumed that the financial burden is an obligation of the various taxing bodies, even if some of the taxing bodies are delinquent at this time.

Mrs. Sturm expects to announce appointment of subcommittees in the very near future as soon as all data regarding the health program is available.

Baby Chick Troubles
To Be Aired At Farm Bureau Offices

"Since the raising of baby chicks is usually supervised by our good farm women," states Farm Adviser, C. A. Hughes, "we especially invite them to attend one of the meetings arranged on baby chicks. We have secured the services of Prof. Varney of the State College. Many who have heard Varney are anxious to get him to Cook county." Two meetings have been arranged as follows:

Blue Island Farm Bureau office, Monday, March 6, 2 p. m.
Arlington Heights Farm Bureau office, Monday, March 6, 7:30 p. m.

A clinic for diseases has been provided. Come and bring your questions and problems.

Heavy Fog Causes Accident on Foundry Rd.

Alfred Meyer made a left hand turn off Foundry rd., into his place during the fog Monday morning when Mr. Thompson was driving in the opposite direction. Thompson's car was badly damaged, while the truck escaped serious injury.

It's A Girl

The sweetest baby girl that ever arrived in the home of a coach or a sport editor is now calling G. A. McElroy "daddy." She awoke in this world at four-thirty a. m. Monday.

"Of course it had to be a girl," says Coach Mac. "Our household needed a pair in order to have a good team."

"Daddy may be a good coach and a good sports editor, but take it from me," says Mac, Jr., "he's the best daddy ever and I want to congratulate the good judgment of my baby sister, in picking out the same dad I did."

Well folks, that tells the story, written because as we go to press we discover that Mac is so frustrated this week that he forgot to say anything about the happy event.

Of course, mother is pretty good, too.

Tax Experts Meet Assessors

Farm Bureau tax experts met farm committees and assessors at two tax schools held in south and north Cook county, February 21 and 24, respectively. John Watson, of the Illinois Agricultural Association, conducted the schools with the Farm Bureau committeemen and township assessors.

In stating the purpose of the meeting, Dan Bergman, chairman of the tax committee, said, "Our purpose is, frankly, cooperation with the assessors and the assessor's office in Cook county. We appreciate the work done by the Assessors in the last quadrennial assessment. Had it not been for the readjustment in assessments in Cook county many farmers would have been forced to quit."

Explains Statistical School
John Watson, director of the taxes and statistics for the Illinois Agricultural Association, was introduced and conducted the discussion. Mr. Watson pointed out that under the existing laws of the state that had been sustained by court decisions, taxes on all property must be uniform. Also, the basis of taxation is a fair cash sale value of property.

Watson distinguished between actual sales and contemplated sales. An actual sale refers to land that is sold voluntarily. The seller must be under coercion to sell because of mortgage or other handicaps. He must be in a position to decline to sell if he is not satisfied with the price offered. The buyer must be equally free to buy or not to buy.

Perhaps the total sale may not be consummated with cash, but the buyer should be in a position to make a cash payment large enough so that his equity in the property purchased is such that he will wish to retain it.

In Cook county 37% of the assessed value is used on which to apply the rate for arriving at the amount of taxes that shall be paid. Watson gave the history of how this figure was arrived at, which was that he computed a number of years ago as being the ratio between the fair cash sale value of the property and the amount for which the property was assessed.

Watson stated that he did not think that this 37% would hold at the present time and made the suggestion that a number of sales should be secured in order to arrive at the ratio that was actually being used at the present time, in order to get a uniform assessment.

Taxes on Farms High
Mr. Watson made it clear that it was impossible to continually keep decreasing the assessments on property with the idea that this would eventually solve the tax problems that farmers have at the present time. He even ventured the statement that real estate in the city of Chicago was laboring under as big a handicap as farm lands in Cook county.

The system of taxation that we are using now is 120 years old. It was obviously fair a century ago when the wealth of the country was represented mostly by farms, homes and business properties. Since that time other forms of property have appeared that are not paying towards the upkeep of local government.

Education, which is essentially a local tax problem, accounts for as high as 60% of the taxes paid. The state guarantees each child an education. This would appear to be a state problem as much as a local problem.

Many boys and girls are educated at the expense of rural districts and then spend their productive lives in cities that have not paid the cost of their education. This does not exactly mean state control of our educational systems.

Sixty-five percent of all income, excluding fees more than 11% of the contribution to cost of government; fourteen percent of income is in interest on bonds and other intangibles that do not contribute to the cost of local government. In other words, 79% of the nation's income escapes this form of taxes.

Mr. Watson said he was not attacking wealth or the ownership of property. He himself is the owner of farm, what the state of Illinois and know what the tax payer's problems were. This left 21% of the nation's income for farm home owners, small businesses, rental property, farms, etc. Because of high taxes real property has no income. Perhaps of this 21% residual income, 10% represented in come from labor and management.

Therefore, no more than 11% of the income from property is paying all the taxes of government for the total 100%.

This condition, according to Watson, is fast destroying the ownership of homes and farms. He predicted that we would undoubtedly see the failure of the city of Chicago to pay for its mounting costs of government under this system of taxation in a few years. At that time it might be possible to arouse public opinion back of a revision of our state constitution so that income would assist property in paying government costs.

Assessors Attend Meetings
John Clark delegated Mr. Sullivan and Mr. Baker of his office to attend this meeting in his stead.

Geo. Glow New Candidate For Park Board

George Glow is a candidate for the Arlington Heights Park Board. His election will mean that Searsdale will have representation on that important board. He is a candidate for the position left vacant by the departure of Thomas Wilson from Arlington Heights.

Candidates for full terms of six years are Geo. K. Volz and Elmer Crane. Mr. Volz is president of the board.

The field house is now in the hands of painters and finishers. With its completion Recreation Park will come into its own in a big way the coming summer.

Dan Schuren, president of Searsdale Community club in commenting Monday night on the candidacy of Mr. Glow said, "if there is any branch of the local government in which Searsdale people are especially interested, it is in the park and recreational facilities of the community. I know that I am voicing the sentiments of all Searsdale when I say that Searsdale is pleased over the candidacy of Mr. Glow."

Ask Business Men To Pay Business Tax Early and Easily

Alderman George Scheneberger, in behalf of the police department of the city council has asked the cooperation of trade and civic association members in the payment of business licenses for 1939. Mr. Scheneberger explained that the city government is trying to be fair to the business interests and will welcome any suggestions, but the village needs the license money in order to pay the mounting expenses of the municipality.

"What is the best way to go about it?" was the inquiry of Mr. Scheneberger. "Shall we lower it, raise it or permit a discount period?" The present charge of $10 a business has been considered most reasonable. The association in its next letter to members will urge the payment of the fees.

An effort will be made to have all business license fees paid prior to April 1.

Family Share Entire Estate of Herman Garms

The will of the late Herman Garms, who died in Arlington Heights January 2, has been admitted to probate. His estate is estimated at $10,500. He left his Arlington Heights farm to his daughters, Ella and Emma, and sons, Herman and Edward in equal shares. The residue of his estate together with his personal effects, are given to his widow, Mary Garms, who is also made executor of the will. All the family live in Arlington Heights.

Arlington Senior Class Will Present Comedy

"Lunatics At Large," a mystery-comedy, will be presented by the senior class of Arlington high school, March 24, in the school auditorium.

Members of the cast are Elvin Anderson, Dudley Budlong, Betty Fenton, Irwin Gaski, Gertrude Glave, Patricia Haemker, Howard Heller, Kenneth Koehnke, Verna Maleska, Helen Palmer, Robert Rehling, Loraine Schoenbeck, Wallace Schuett, and Winifred Wensley.

"Lunatics at Large" is a rip-roaring comedy which those of all ages will enjoy.

Mr. Sullivan made contributions to the meeting in pointing out the conditions under which the Assessors were laboring, especially in trying to get intangibles on the books. Each assessor present made a contribution to the meeting. Those present were as follows:

Emil Hsindorf, assessor, Hanover township.
Frank Landwehr, assessor, Northfield township.
Herman C. Devermann, assessor, Palatine township.
Otto Busse, assessor, Elk Grove township.
John W. McGregor, assessor, Maine township.

Henry H. Dilg, assessor, Niles township.
Herman Lichthardt, assessor, Schaumburg township.
J. Fred Meyer, assessor, Wheeling township.

Louis Ursitt, assessor, Bloom township.
Joseph Lentz, assessor, Worth township.
Henry Cohrs, assessor, Rich township.

Geo. Heidel, assessor, Palos township.
A number of assessors who could not be present asked for a report at the meeting.

START NEW PLANS FOR REMOVAL OF FREIGHT DEPOT

Victor Grimmer, Chicago architect who designs a majority of the homes in Searsdale, presented to the board of directors of the Trade and Civic association Monday evening rough sketches of the proposed new freight depot, which is part of the city beautiful plan for Arlington. The new building will probably be located two blocks west of the present structure. Its construction would mean the demolition of the present freight depot which sticks out in the center of the business district as a sore thumb.

Use of lumber in the present structure and the use of other materials that would be available at low cost is expected to bring the cost of the project down to a figure where a sufficient number of public subscriptions could easily be obtained.

It is understood that the North Western is considering the division of the freight and passenger offices in Arlington Heights and a business office will be established in the new building if it is constructed.

Advertising Programs N. G. In Arlington

The board of directors of Trade and Civic associations again went on record Monday night as opposed to participation by its members in any advertising program. In case of worthy causes, upon application of the organization sponsoring the event, the association may make an outright donation although up to the present time, no precedent has been established.

There is nothing that will prevent an individual business firm from making an outright donation, but it will be unethical for any member of the trade and civic association to make such contribution as a business advertisement.

The by-laws of the Arlington Heights Trade and Civic association permit advertisements in only regularly established publications and the movie screen.

Business Men Dinner Tonight

Reservations for the annual dinner of the Arlington Heights Trade and Civic association are piling up and it begins to appear that a capacity crowd of business men, their wives and invited guests will fill all places at the tables in the Presbyterian church hall this Friday evening at 6:45. There is an unusual program which includes the Texas Rangers with WLS impersonations and an interesting address. It will be a snappy program, with plenty of songs, and nothing will be allowed to interrupt the enjoyment of the turkey dinner with all of its trimmings which will be served by the Presbyterian ladies. Tickets are on sale by directors and committee.

Payment of Costs and Damages Secures Release, Discharge of Autoist

George Klech, driving his own car, met disaster Sunday near the intersection of State and Rand rds. when his auto sideswiped the car of Ray Gresel. The latter took Gresel into custody until the arrival of state police who placed him in the Arlington police station until Monday, charged with driving when intoxicated and leaving the scene of an accident. Payment of all damages and costs brought about his release when Gresel refused to prosecute.

Fred Baumgartens Celebrate Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baumgarten, Palatine, will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary when a group of friends and relatives will gather at their home, Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Baumgarten will be honored by their seven living children and thirteen grandchildren, Emil and William of Arlington Heights, Art of Chicago, Herman of Marinette, Wisconsin, Mrs. Fred Lenschow, Burlington (Illinois), and Mrs. George Hantzaris, of Norwood Park.

Mr. Baumgarten, 74 years old, was born in Schwerin-Mecklenburg, Germany, while Mrs. Baumgarten, 75, nee Minnie Finke, was born in Elk Grove. They were married March 3, 1889, in the Schaumburg church by the Rev. G. A. Muller. They have spent their past fifty years in the vicinity of Schaumburg and Palatine.

Phillip Harth Dies, Funeral Thursday

Funeral services will be held today (Thursday) for Phillip Harth, 79 years old, of Wheeling, at the Lauterburg and Oehler funeral home, Arlington Heights, at 2:30 o'clock. The Rev. Kossack will officiate. Burial will be in the Wheeling cemetery.

Mr. Harth died Monday at the Arlington Rest Home, where he has resided since last July.

U. S. Navy Band Dedicate Gym At Arlington

The board of directors of the Arlington Heights trade and civic association believe that the dedication of the new high school gymnasium next fall will be an event of importance, worthy of a visit of the United States Navy Band.

To bring that band to Arlington Heights will cost a thousand dollars. Admission tickets would necessarily have to be a dollar. The problem facing the association which sponsorship is asked by the band is whether there are a thousand people in Arlington Heights and vicinity who would be willing to pay a dollar to hear and see this national organization.

A navy band concert is not the only problem that is facing that board of directors. Its members have ten days in which to decide if Arlington Heights is interested patriotically to such an extent that its citizens will cooperate in a pageant production as part of an Independence day celebration July 4. The celebration could also be a part of the dedication of the new park which should be completed by that time. A general outline of the suggested pageant will be received next week. It will be presented to the advisory committee as well as to the association's directors.

Arlington Chevrolet Enters New Home

When N. M. Lattot, proprietor of the Arlington Chevrolet Co. came to Arlington Heights, he set a goal of auto success for his firm that was impossible of realization in the crowded quarters of his old place on North State rd. He moved March 4 into the former Engleking garage building at 32 South Evergreen, where he is installing new service equipment that will enable him to realize his ambition to provide a service to cars of all makes that is second to no other garage in the Northwest territory.

A special body and fender repair department with paint shop, is an additional feature of the new garage. Included in the new equipment is motor tuning, and combustion testing machines and other equipment that will enable workmen to easily and scientifically locate and remedy motor and car trouble.

Mr. Lattot is naturally an enthusiast and booster of his home town and its industries but enthusiasm extends to the Chevrolet and he has resolved to make the Arlington Chevrolet garage the best ever.

Raymond Thies Elected Head of North Cook 4-H Club Federation

The Boys' and Girls' 4-H clubs of north Cook county have formed a federation of club representatives to carry on their self-government. Raymond Thies, Palatine-Schaumburg 4-H club was elected president at a meeting at the Farm Bureau office Friday evening.

Other officers elected were vice-president, Robert Kolge, Leyden 4-H club; secretary-treasurer, Ruth Kolge, Sunnyside 4-H club; recreation leader, Vernon Decker, Elk Grove 4-H club.

The Federation this year will conduct the 4-H rally in the spring. The rally will probably be the evening of April 22, at the Palatine high school.

The 4-H club show was planned for this summer. Later on the achievement program will be held by the federation.

A similar organization has been made in south Cook county.

Returns With Glowing Accounts of the South

Marvin Rodewald and Elsworth Allen returned Monday from a two weeks trip to New Orleans and Florida that included a visit with L. George Kloefer, who is an instructor at the government's flying school at Pensacola. George was a royal host and showed them the town, the air base and a few extras.

Postal cards received from the boys say that they traveled like prosperous Republicans—whatever that means. There was nothing that was too good for them and nothing that they missed in scenery or entertainment. They have promised themselves a return trip next fall.

Gus Heidorn Becomes Evanston Business Man

Chain stores have nothing on Gus Heidorn any more. He is proprietor of Buddy's Place, 1922 Central, Evanston in the center of the north-side business district within three blocks of the stadium. Millard Elvess, brother of Mrs. Heidorn, is managing the Evanston store, which sells ice cream and milk.

Auditors Ask Return of $1,000 By Supervisor

Official Demand Awaits Return Of Town Clerk

The board of auditors comprising C. M. Behrens, Wm. Weber, Wm. Koppin and Gilbert Klehn, all justices of the peace, agreed Thursday evening that Supervisor Grandt was indebted to the town of Wheeling in the amount of $1,052.10. This does not mean that Mr. Grandt will ultimately pay that sum, but the procedure taken that evening was the first step necessary to ultimately carry the case into the courts if the supervisor does not reimburse the township in the amount of the above sum.

The board of auditors under the law, could only act in an advisory capacity as they have no legal right to make the demand. That right rests solely with the town clerk, Howard Helm, who is in California. If Mr. Helm does not make a formal demand on Mr. Grandt for the above sum mandamus proceedings can be taken.

In the court hearing that would result if Mr. Grandt refuses to recognize the indebtedness, the supervisor would have the opportunity to submit any evidence as to his innocence of any shortage and as to his right to charge the commission fees, which with the alleged shortage comprise the sum that the auditors ask to be returned to the township treasury.

Included in the defense of Mr. Grandt is the claim that the alleged overpayments were made with the approval of the various auditing boards.

The resolution unanimously passed by the town board reads as follows:

Whereas, E. F. Laurin, Auditor employed at the last annual meeting to audit the records of the Road and Bridge and Town Funds of the town of Wheeling for the year 1932 to March 31, 1938, has made such audit and presented same to the Town Board of Auditors and when from such audit it appeared that there is an amount of $606.89 of said funds not accounted for by the said Supervisor and there also has been an overpayment to Supervisor Grandt of $445.21 in commissions on funds disbursed, therefore be it resolved that Town Clerk Helm be instructed to make a demand on the Supervisor to account for the above amounts totaling $1,052.10.

There were present Thursday night in addition to the board of auditors, Attorney Hugo J. Thatt, Auditor E. F. Laurin and Frank Zaleski representing Mr. Grandt.

Attorney Thatt opened the discussion with a statement that after further consulting statutes, he was firmly convinced that the commission fees charged by Mr. Grandt for handling the money was excessive and contrary to law, regardless of practices of previous supervisors.

Auditor Laurin was just as firm in his belief that the amount unaccounted for was $606 regardless of a certified check given by Mr. Grandt when a previous shortage was discovered by Mr. Bolte in 1933.

Attorney Zaleski argued that an insistence that Mr. Grandt again pay that amount, would be an obligation on his part. After a discussion lasting two hours, the board members decided that any controversy that might exist between Collector Wm. Ansen and Supervisor Grandt could not alter the fact that the Township had $600 coming from somebody and as public officials they could do nothing other than to make a formal demand on the supervisor for the money.

The board spent some time discussing the matter of fees for services of all town board officials, exposure of which was made by the audit.

Individual members offered to return the extra fees received by them in which case a demand would be made of the supervisor for similar return. Such action on their part would necessarily be based only on the low figures provided by law, which is not followed by many neighboring townships. The board took no action, on this matter, allowing it to be held in abeyance until the annual meeting of the town board, next October.

Likewise, the board allowed to drop out of the picture the charge of interest on time warrants, apparently accepting the position taken by Attorney Zaleski that such interest charges were no greater than is provided by law and the township did not suffer any financial loss in the transactions involved.

Announce Topics For Farmer's School For March

The Farmers evening school will discuss various phases of the dairy enterprise at the five meetings during March. It meets each Thursday evening at 8:00 p. m. in the agriculture room of the Palatine high school.

The topics for discussion will be as follows:

March 2—Raising dairy calves.

March 9—Relative costs of various dairy feeds.

March 16—Bangs disease and Garget.

March 23—Full Feeding and Surplus Milk.

March 30 — Summer Feeding Dairy Cows.

All farmers are invited to attend any or all meetings.

Views of Germany and Sudetenland Topic Of Lions Club Speaker

Dr. Arthur Steinhass, head of the biological science department of George Williams College, Chicago, will give an illustrated lecture on "An Amateur's Observation in Germany and Sudetenland" at the next Lions club dinner Tuesday, March 7 at 7 p. m. at the Lutheran school hall. On account of the general interest in the subject, the lecture will be open to the public. Reservations for the dinner should be made with Carl Ewert, secretary.

Dr. Steinhass was in central Europe just before the Sudeten crisis. He will give first hand information about what he saw and heard during that difficult period in Central Europe.

Grandt Replies To Benefit Club

Chas. F. Grandt, Wheeling township supervisor is answering below criticism of the manner in which he conducts the Wheeling relief office. Mr. Grandt's letter is a reply to a news story that appeared in last week's Herald, purporting to express the opinion of members of the Benefit club. Mr. Grandt writes:

To members of the Benefit club or to others who may be concerned: The published criticism of my office has come to my attention. As the accusations were made publicly, I am answering them in a similar manner, rather than attending one of your so-called public meetings.

You state everybody on relief has a right to know, or probably demand, his budget. You cannot be a tax payer or you wouldn't take that attitude. If the taxpayers money should be spent as you suggest the cost would be $6,000 a month to run relief, and the supervisor would not need to work so hard to get our relief folks on WPA.

Our state allowed us $2,900 this month. Where is the other $3,000 coming from? I can assure you that no person on relief is starving and if they need food, the office is open for them to come in person and tell their needs. All cases are investigated as quickly as possible—no once, but several times.

We have never yet received a complaint. You take dues from your members. Why isn't this money being allocated? If you have so much to spare, why not give it to the taxpayer for the benefit of relief?

Chas. F. Grandt

Palatine Youth Escapes Death from Hit and Run Driver at Loop Station

Stepping from a street car at Madison and Canal sts., Chicago, Harris V. Helgeson, 25, of Palatine, escaped serious injury when he was struck down by a hit and run driver, late Saturday night. The driver, Stanley Bogusz, 27, 1708 Superior st., Chicago, continued down Madison street, crashed into a taxicab, injuring two passengers at Clinton st., and extended his flight a block or two farther when a squad car overtook him.

Helgeson was taken to the county hospital where he was treated for head injuries and remained there Sunday when he left the hospital and returned home on an evening train. His family had not been aware of the accident, believing that he had remained overnight in the city with friends as he frequently did.

An examination at the Palatine Community hospital revealed that Harris had been in no serious condition and he was able to attend Safety court in the criminal court building, Wednesday morning. Bogusz was called to answer charges of reckless driving.

Bogusz was driving a borrowed car and was accompanied by two other youths.

Business Girls Make A Foursome On Trip To New Orleans

Three Arlington Heights business men are receiving postal cards from their young lady clerks who are taking a February-March vacation to New Orleans. They are Irma Windheim of Wilke's jewelry store; Margaret Haseman, of Seburgs; Margaret Kastning of Emerald Cleaners and Miss Dorothy Helm. Dorothy supplied the car. They left in the midst of a heavy fog Monday morning and if postal cards mean anything they are having the times of their lives. They expect to be home next Monday.

Village Employee Escapes Injury As Battery Explodes

Supt. Wm. Luehring of Arlington Heights water and street departments considers that he had a narrow escape last week when an over-charged battery, which he was handling, exploded. He was blinded for a few minutes, but is none the worse for the experience.

Audit Shows Annual Costs Of Township

The original purpose of the Laurin audit authorized at the township annual meeting held last April, was to obtain accurate data regarding the financial status of the township for the purpose of adopting some plan that would get the township out of the red.

The great need for such action is shown by the following figures which reveal that out of tax levies for years 1932 to 1938, varying between $4,000 and $7,000 there was only an average of $500 cash money available for payment of bills. Nine tenths of the township costs have to be paid with anticipation warrants. This is a deplorable condition and some way should be found to lift the township of Wheeling's finances out of the deep hole in which they have fallen.

The cost of township government and the amount paid in cash and amount paid in tax warrants is shown in the following table: (First figure shown is total cost.)

Year	Cash	Warrants
Year 32-33	$3,651.31	$3,105.48
Year 33-34	3,549.33	596.48
Year 34-35	3,500.95	280.45
Year 35-36	4,509.33	395.57
Year 36-37	5,820.82	701.09
Year 37-38	6,157.02	460.60
		5,696.42

It will be noted that the costs of the township are dangerously near the amount of tax levy, especially when the tax collection is barely 75%. This condition probably explains why the township is so badly in debt.

The costs of the various departments of the township will be analyzed in next week's issue of the Herald.

If all of the taxes were received for the years above covered, all of the outstanding tax warrants could be paid and there would be a balance of $7,000 on hand. It sounds good on paper, but it is the reality that must be faced, which in unpaid tax warrants for the various years is:

1931 issue	$ 64.00
1932 issue	369.42
1933 issue	455.95
1934 issue	309.69
1935 issue	377.51
1936 issue	1,033.92
1937 issue	*5,278.52
due R. & B. fund	856.82
total indebtedness

A Bad Cold Has Allies

By C. W. Lussman
of Sieburg Pharmacy

Ploeking to the humor of that "bad cold" comes hurrying a host of allies, not one of them welcome, pleasant or even safe to endure.

One warlike ally is sinusitis, just an overextended visit or your cold, long after it should have completed its course. Once known as "chronic catarrh", this inflammation of the sinus cavities about the head and face causes excruciating discomfort, reduces your efficiency, is a constant threat to health.

Do not endure this enemy to health and happiness. Consult a medical doctor, prevent sinusitis from taking a permanent seat in your system.

Be sure that vaccines, serums or any medication prescribed by the doctor is procured from a reputable druggist.

This is the 31st of a series of Editorial Advertisements appearing in this paper each week.

Roselle Board Member Drops Dead In Chicago

George W. Hyman
Victim of Heart Attack

George W. Hyman, Roselle village board member and for the past 15 years telegraph operator for Harris Upham & Company, Chicago brokerage house, dropped dead early Tuesday morning shortly after his arrival at his desk. He suffered a heart attack. Although he had been suffering this winter from severe colds Mr. Hyman was feeling well when he left his home in Roselle on an early train. His age was 60 years.

Funeral services were held at the Norris Mortuary, Elgin, Wednesday afternoon, the Rev. F. W. Hoisington officiating. The body was taken to Bangor, Mich., where services will be held Friday with burial in Taylor cemetery, Bangor. Born in Germany, Mr. Hyman came to the United States when a young man and since has served as a telegraph operator with newspapers, railroads, and brokerage houses. He came to Roselle in 1925.

Suburban Times Here Sunday for Return Game With Paddock Printers

The Paddock Printers bowling team dropped their first match game to the Des Plaines Suburban Times, by 23 pins last Sunday at the Des Plaines alleys.

The local boys got off to a flying start in the first game to trim the "Fulle boys" by 85 pins, but weakened in the second game, giving Des Plaines a few pins advantage for the last game and thus lost a close match.

The Des Plaines boys got a total of 2280 to the Paddock Printers 2257. Incidentally that is the poorest showing the printers have made since they started bowling a little over a year ago.

Herman Beth, the Suburban Times "star bowler" was on the sidelines with a sore thumb, but August Bestman, who beat Beth in a match game the night before for a prize of $25 was substituted in his place. "Augie" was a real sport and a good bowler.

Chas. Hufnagel, one of the Paddock "hot shots" has asked to be excused next Sunday afternoon when the Des Plaines boys come to Arlington to roll the second game of a three game series. It has been rumored by the Des Plaines boys that "Huff" is afraid of them. But the Paddock Printers deny this and although they expect to engage a good bowler to take the place of Hufnagel, his identity is not known as we go to press.

The two bosses had a match of their own during the other game. It was boss and daughter vs. ditto. Stuart folded up completely and Margie almost upset all the dope—She got beat 14 pins, and it was her first try at the sport. The Des Plaines boys admitted that Fulle and his daughter had been practicing for the match, but Stuart and "Marg" thought they could beat them without practice. Well, it was a great day, and everyone had a good time.

The "big gun" of the afternoon was Miller of Des Plaines! He got about all the breaks anyone gets in the game and consequently was way over his head. "Con" and Herman were O. K. but it was Starke an Arlington Heights resident that happens to work at the Times that clinched the match with a big series.

To Keep a True Lent "Is this a fast—to keep the ladder lean, And clean from fat of veals and sheep? Is it to quit the dish of flesh, Yet still to fill the platter high with fish? Is it to fast an hour—or ragged go Or show a downcast look and sour? No! 'tis a fast to dole, thy sheaf of wheat, Unto the hungry soul.

It is to fast from strife, from old debate and hate, To circumscribe thy life, To show a heart grief-ridden; to starve thy sin, Not bin; and that's to keep thy Lent."

—Robert Herrick
We invite you to worship with us.

Return To Christ

Of the Cross Says

Dr. Walter A. Maier

Appealing for a deeper appreciation of the cross in Protestant circles, Dr. Walter A. Maier, speaking Sunday on the coast-to-coast of Lutheran Hour network, urged a wider personal acceptance of the redemptive love of Jesus Christ. For six years the Lutheran Hour has offered to send a miniature gold cross to listeners throughout the world, and more than 300,000 have been sent out.

In this, the first of his weekly Lenten messages, Dr. Maier declared that one major reason for tragedy in modern life is the refusal to bow submissively before the will of God. Learning to say: "Thy will be done," is one of the hardest, yet most blessed lessons for our stubborn age, he asserted.

Throughout history, according to Dr. Maier, no people have ever been so harshly persecuted as the followers of Christ. Our age is shocked by the European hostility against the Jews, he said, but throughout the ages and in all parts of the country Christians have suffered more. Yet, despite these sorrows, Christ has given men courage to face the worst that life may offer and to meet persecution, not as fanatics, but through confidence, trusting faith in Christ and in the power of prayer.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES "Christ Jesus" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, February 26.

The Golden Text was, "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; . . . And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him" (Colossians 3:16, 17).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined. For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace" (Isaiah 9:2, 6).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Throughout all generations both before and after the Christian era, the Christ, as the spiritual idea,—the reflection of God,—has come with some measure of power and grace to all prepared to receive Christ, Truth, Abraham, Jacob, Moses, and the prophets caught glorious glimpses of the Messiah, or Christ, which baptized these seers in the divine nature, the essence of Love" (p. 333).

Chicago Columnist Talks Before Woman's Club

The members of the Arlington Heights Woman's club had the good fortune to hear Herma Clark, author of the Column in the Chicago Sunday Tribune, entitled "When Chicago was Young" talk on "Adventure of a Columnist" at their meeting on Wednesday afternoon.

In a most informal and charming manner, Miss Clark introduced us to some of the characters in her column who are purely fictitious, but whose experiences are based on early life in Chicago. Miss Clark also brought with her many pictures of people prominent in Chicago during the '80's, which were very interesting to see. Miss Clark is the author of the "Dear Julia Letters."

A social time and refreshments were enjoyed at the close of the program.

Theta Iota Gamma Hold Final Meeting

The members of Theta Iota Gamma held their final meeting Thursday evening before becoming members of the National Sorority, Lambda Sigma Alpha. Officers were elected for the new organization and are as follows: Hazel Sauer, president; Marian Drechsel, vice president; Dorothy Nelson, pledge captain; Jane Bigelow, corresponding secretary; Virginia Tager, recording secretary; and Adeline Basse, treasurer. The girls will be initiated into Lambda Sigma Alpha at a formal initiation service in Villa Park next Sunday.

Important Meeting

The Woman's Guild of St. James Catholic Church, met in regular session in parish hall Monday, Feb. 27, with the president, Mrs. J. W. Connelin, presiding. Reports from permanent committees were given and approved. Plans and date for annual card party were discussed. The Easter card party will be given on Sunday, April 10th. Mrs. John Petravaro, chairman of the event. Fr. St. James was present and gave a helpful talk appropriate to the Lenten season, which all sincere Christians should meditate in their hearts. Meeting adjourned to meet March 27th when the Guild will have a guest speaker, a Passionist Priest, who will give a helpful address. All members are urged to keep this date and an invitation is extended to all the ladies to be present March 27th.

V. F. W. Auxiliary Attend District Meet

Feb. 21, V. F. W. auxiliary of Des Plaines, Mrs. Anna Wright, president, entertained visitors from six auxiliaries of the district and officials in Masonic temple, where an arch of roses with the "colors" carried a beautiful background for the program. Among the officials were Dept. Pres. Mrs. Clara Thompson and Sec. Mrs. Marie Rice; Past Dept. Pres. Mrs. Edna King, also chairmen of various departments, aiding in program of memorial and other interest features of the occasion. A chop suey supper was served to the company. All agreed the meeting was an instructive one, long to be remembered.

THE CHAPLAIN'S CHAT

By Captain Todd

During this past week the nation celebrated the birthday of George Washington. We think of him now as the father of his country, but do you know what some of his contemporaries thought of him? One newspaper said, "If ever a nation has been debauched by a man, this nation has been debauched by George Washington." When he presided at the convention which was to draw up the Constitution of the United States, another newspaper referred to him as "The Fool." Many people called great today were considered fools when they were alive. All progress is a growing adjustment to a little foolishness.

St. Paul says, "We are fools for Christ's sake." The world has come to its unsettled condition today because too few of us professing Christians have been willing to be fools for Christ's sake. How foolish it is to believe that the Bible with its outmoded stories of long ago has any message for us today. How foolish to believe that we can pour out our hearts in prayer and be heard by that great power which started millions of worlds in motion. How foolish to suppose that the life and death of a small-town carpenter, those many centuries ago, can have any bearing on our lives today. That may seem foolish, but the greatest wisdom is found in just such folly.

BLINDED!

Why School Consolidation

ALEX TUDYMAN
Principal Westchester Public School

One economist once said that the average citizen has a tendency to talk loudest about the things he knows least.

Two weeks ago an article pertaining to the consolidation of schools appeared in this column.

I certainly agree with Jane Q. Public's answer to Mr. Plate in last week's paper. May I add this supplementary article?

Business has found that it is more efficient and adequate when there is a large administrative unit. Schools have not progressed so favorably and the costly inefficient one teacher school system still remains. Samuel Young, superintendent of public education in the State of New York, in 1884, sensed the problem. In his words:

"There are 16,875 districts in the state, (Illinois has 12,000 in 1938). Small and consequently inefficient districts have, heretofore for a long period, been the source of many formidable evils. Miserable school houses, poor and cheap teachers, interrupted and temporary instruction, and heavy rate bills, are among the permanent calamities incident to small school districts. The ordinary pretext for the division and sub-division of districts is the greater proximity to be afforded to the portion of the inhabitants to the schoolhouse. To this single fancied benefit considerations of much greater importance are often sacrificed."

The author of "Why Consolidated Schools," said that all school directors of the rural schools should know the facts concerning consolidation of schools. I heartily agree with him. With that point in mind, let us look at some of the appalling figures and facts. Do you know that:

There are 12,000 school districts in Illinois?

There are 9,931 one-room country schools in this state?

That in the year, 1935-36, there were 904 school districts that had an attendance of fewer than six pupils.

There were in 1935-36, 5,002 school boards that had to take care of fewer than 15 children?

In 1935-36, 7,000 school boards had to take care of fewer than 18 children?

The ratio between the richest and the poorest districts in the State of Illinois is 250 to 1. If townships had the boards the ratio would be 20 to 1, and if a county board was set up the ratio would be only 6 to 1?

It is a fact that centralized administrative units are more efficient and adequate.

The County Superintendent in his editorial in the February issue of the Education School Digest, admitted that consolidation would increase cost to tax-payers in some cases but would compensate for this with increased facilities and better trained teachers. If you would have read on Mr. Oscar Plate, you would have discovered that. It happened to be the following sentence from where you ended the County Superintendent's excerpt.

Furthermore, the County Superintendent was not inferring to Cook county alone. He was speaking on behalf of the state and national set up as any honest, diligent and interested school man would. He was most probably referring to the latest bulletin on "The Problem of School Organization and Finance in Illinois," by Weber and Benner of the U. of Illinois. Incidentally, this report has many enlightening facts that all school people should know. We must not look at exceptions, but look at the scene in its totality.

You mention expense. May I say that from actual present experience, I see two small units costing practically double the amount if we had one centralized school. I too, am in favor of economy and I see de-centralization in schools an actual extravagance.

I am of the impression that it is far safer to watch a few "pots" of money than as many as 12,000 "pots" as you put it.

Mr. Plate mentioned that teachers are trained before they entered the teaching field. It is a known fact that the majority of one room school teachers are those with the minimum of training. The less trained teachers can be taken into one room schools because of the low salaries. I find school board members, where professional training is incidental to them, looking for "bargains." Because of the inadequate salaries, additional professional training is out of the question and is not enhanced. Thanks to the present county superintendent, we are elevating those standards. Furthermore education is not an end, but a continuous process.

Mr. Plate mentioned that buses were very dangerous. As a matter of fact, it is much safer to transport children on buses than to allow them to hike on roads, many of them busy thoroughfares, for distances up to five miles as I experienced children doing in one district not over two years ago. Furthermore, insurance is carried on each child and bus.

When schools are over-crowded there is much danger in affecting each individual, mentally and from the health standpoint.

I think Mr. Plate will see light if I use an example that should be very familiar to him. Farmers in many vicinities buy a threshing machine cooperatively. Each farmer contributes a certain amount of money. The machine is then used by all the farmers. In this way it cuts expenses and helps toward efficiency.

If Mr. Plate was consistent with his school ideas, should not be for one or two threshing machines for each farm? Of course that is ridiculous on small farms. So it is where school population is low.

Schools, because of increased population, professional training, higher standards of living, and better equipment have had to increase their cost and funds. But the amount expended for education has not increased as much as it is desired. Schools and the means of public education are indispensable to a democratic government. Perhaps we ought to start thinking about education in these terms. We spend over 15,000,000,000 dollars a year to prevent crime in U. S. We want a million dollars an hour for our part in the World War. Corporations spend millions per year on research so that we can lead a more luxurious life. Yet we spend only about two billions of dollars for education per year in this country.

It is my firm conviction that more school men are interested in a re-vamping of our agrarian state of schools than anyone else. And if school administrators have been interested since as early as 1884, I cannot see nor agree that this is a "new movement."

Maine Junior College Needs Greater Interest Before Board Acts

The board of education of Maine township high school will wait until their March meeting before they decide if interest in a junior college is sufficient to warrant its establishment. Only 20% of high school graduates to whom questionnaire cards were mailed replied. One hundred twenty-five cards were returned by graduates of the last three years; those reporting that they were not interested totaled 24. Only forty percent of the parents of 1939 seniors replied to the inquiries. Only one civic organization expressed its approval of the plan. Present indications are that if a junior college is established it would have an enrollment of one hundred. Tuition fees are expected to pay cost of instructors, leaving overhead expenses of the project to be paid by the high school district.

Roselle Woman Dies Of Injuries

Injuries received November 29 in a three-car collision which occurred on Belvidere st. near route 131 in Waukegan, proved fatal to St. Joseph's hospital, Elgin, Sunday night to Mrs. Nellie Schuler, 65 years old, of Roselle.

Mrs. Schuler received a compound fracture of one leg and other injuries in the accident. She was in St. Theresa's hospital in Waukegan until December 10, when she was taken to St. Joseph's hospital.

Mrs. Schuler was riding in a car with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Roloff, also of Roselle. They were traveling east on Belvidere st. Just west of the intersection of route 131, their car was struck head-on by a machine driven by Phil M. Shinn, 918 Galena blvd., Aurora, which was west-bound.

Conduct Inquest Today
Waukegan police who investigated the accident reported that Shinn had turned out to pass another machine which was parked at the curb. The identity of the owner of the parked automobile never was learned as the car was driven away in the confusion which followed the accident.

A moment after Shinn's and Roloff's car had collided, a third automobile, driven by Anthony Wegener of McHenry, hit the two disabled machines.

Mrs. Schuler never recovered from the shock of her injuries. Although her condition improved somewhat for a short time, she suffered a relapse recently and gradually became weaker until her death, Sunday.

Mrs. Schuler was born in Palestine, December 7, 1873 and had been a resident of Roselle for the last 30 years.

Besides the widow, William Schuler, she is survived by a son, Earl Schuler of Morton Grove; a daughter, Mrs. Mae G. Roloff of Roselle; two sisters, Mrs. Jessie Sexauer of Kankakee, Ill., and Mrs. Harvey Moss of Chicago; a brother, John Beiriger of Kansas City, Mo., and three grandchildren, Lucille and Glen Roloff of Roselle, and Laverne Schuler of Morton Grove.

Mrs. Schuler was a member of Roselle chapter No. 979 O. E. S. and of the Royal Neighbors of America.

Funeral services were held at 2 Wednesday afternoon.

How much is a telephone call worth?

It may be a pleasant chat with a friend... may save a trip to the store in unpleasant weather, close an important business deal. It may bring the doctor... the fireman... the police... in some emergency.

No one can estimate the true value of the telephone in dollars and cents, for a single call may be worth more than you would pay for a whole lifetime of telephone service.

But there can be no doubt that you get good value in your telephone. You have at your command not only the millions of dollars' worth of equipment of the Illinois Bell Telephone Company—the finest equipment that science can design and skilled manufacture produce—but you have also the services of twenty-three thousand trained Illinois Bell employees whose tradition it is to see that your call goes through, night or day, good weather or bad, to any one and anywhere.

Truly, of all the things you buy, few give so much... or cost so little... as your telephone service.

Smith and Dawson Five Close Season Against St. Peters Quintet

The Prospect Heights boys will close their season next Wednesday at the Arlington high school gym, playing St. Peters of Arlington Heights. This game, brimming over with friendly rivalry, will settle the mythical edge championship of Arlington Heights.

In a rough and tumble game last year the Smith and Dawson boys won by a wide margin.

At 8 p. m., the Karstens Morticians will meet the Van Reek boosters of Chicago, the team that eliminated them from the Evening American tournament. With the jitters out of their system it is to be hoped that the local girls can come out on top. However, their opponents have, in Mary de Murray, the best girl player they have ever opposed.

Globe Trotters To Play Alumni Of Bensenville

Star Negro Team In Exhibition Next Sunday

Harlem Globe Trotters, famous colored team, one of the finest to appear in this section will appear at Bensenville this Sunday. They will meet the Bensenville alumni. They are widely known for their unusual exhibitions of basketball they have staged the last nine years.

The globe-trotters have won eight major tournaments, have won over eighty per cent of games played, and have never been defeated by a negro team. They are often called the clowns of the hardwoods.

The Globe-Trotter team consists of Jake Lewis, Dick Maupins, Mitts Sherman, Don Cheatham, and Jimmy Tunnell. The reserves include Joe Harrington, Runt Dillins, Cliff Stinson, Ralph Kirk, and "Flash" Taylor.

The Arlington Lutheran team will meet the Alumni lights in the curtain raiser at 2:30. Bensenville's lights are at top form after a slow start this season. They have won seven of their last nine games. Last Sunday they outplayed a good Winkler team.

Advance ticket sales have been very good which means there will be a large crowd on hand. The auditorium seats between six and nine hundred.

Chicago Firm Gets Contract For Itasca Job

The S. G. Hayes Construction company has been declared the lowest bidder and was awarded the contract for the improvement of Itasca-Arlington rd., it is announced this week from the county highway department. The Itasca project which will consist of blacktopping from Irving Park boulevard to the Cook county line, a distance of less than two miles, is expected to cost over $25,000.

The Hayes company bid was approved by the county board along with bids by the same company on two other projects at a total cost of $13,350. The other projects are a stretch on Route 5 north of Glen Ellyn and on Route 21, Geneva rd.

With the contract let and money available, there is no apparent reason why the work cannot start as soon as weather conditions permit.

Bowling News At Northwest Alleys

Arlington Heights—

by HERB HAMMER.

Talk about the Monday night league tightening up. There is only four games difference between first and fifth place, with three teams tied for second place, three games out.

On 1 and 2, El Rand took two games on the chin from the Elevators. Alex Askeloff and Al Kehe did the heavy stick work for Elevators getting 601 and 597 respectively. Al Kehe also won the dollar on 223. On 3 and 4, the Hartmann Shoes continued on their wild rampage, taking all three games from Cafe and pulled up into a tie for second place. This team has been down in fifth place all season and in the last four weeks they are threatening the leaders. Eddie Duenn was high for the losers with 618, a nice series and Geo. Harris with 610 Becker did all the damage against Cafe. Geo. Harris had a 256 game to start with, but he lost the pocket and finished with 179-175.

On 5 and 6 the fast-slipping Blatz Beers lost all three games to the Hammes. It was just too many railroads and errors for Blatz and too much Bolte for Hammes. Marty did Al Kehe for booty prize for the season with a 112 game. Rex got the "duck" on 229.

PICKING OFF THE SPARES—by SIXTA

Mac Says

by GERALD A. MC ELROY

When Grant played at Palatine three weeks ago we were convinced that their team was far below the class of the other teams of the league. Everyone had been swamping them by top heavy scores. They have small and inexperienced boys and were rated tail enders by the coaches in the district tourney. It looked like a no victory season for Coach Werhan's boys.

TEAM FINDS ITSELF

Then two weeks ago Grant surprised Antioch by winning a conference game 24-19. We figured that Antioch was probably weakened by the flu epidemic which had forced their coaches to close for a week. Then Elia beat the Grant team 32-30 in the final conference game, but said that several of their best boys were sick. We did not catch on to what was happening up at Fox Lake and we guess that other coaches and critics didn't either. Evidently the Fox Lake team was beginning to find itself.

"BELIEVE IT OR NOT"

After Grant took Richmond in the opening round at Wauconda last Wednesday 31-17, we were surprised but thought Richmond was just very weak. However, when an inspired Grant team beat Wauconda 24-23 and then downed Elia 35-28, it began to appear that we had another "believe it or not" or "once in a life time" situation. Grant finally reverted to their normal state in the final with Hebron and were subjected to the most one-sided trouncing of the tourney 46-11. However, it just goes to show the importance of the proper mental attitude and what boys can do when they get the winning spirit.

FLAWLESS EXHIBITION

Hebron's exhibition of basketball in the final at Wauconda was well high flawless. Expert ball control and next to perfect shooting form featured their playing. We believe that Hebron is the only team that can give either Dundee or Elgin a decent game in the regional until they meet each other. We definitely pick Hebron to dispose of Maine in the opening round.

MORE THAN HIS SHARE

Coach Wesner of Elia has had about the worst breaks imaginable this season. First off a WPA project was so slow in repairing the gym that the school court was not available for practice until after Christmas. Then after a disasterous start Elia did win three in a row from Palatine, Bensenville, and Wauconda only to have two of them forfeited because of playing an ineligible boy by mistake. Then to top it off when Elia had a swell chance of getting into the district finals and perhaps winning the tourney, along comes second rate Grant and puts on such a red hot team, try as they might, never had a chance. It's a tough life this coaching game. Just ask Wesner. At least he has the 1937-38 season to think about when his team won all 10 league games.

OUTSTANDING PERFORMER

For outstanding player at the Wauconda tournament, we nominate Capt. Lyle Johnson of Hebron, one of the smoothest performers in this section. By the way, he is the only player to graduate from Coach Crane's outfit which has won 20 out of 21 games.

WE ARE REMINDED

Grant's remarkable tournament performance reminds us of the story they tell out in North Dakota of the year in the late twenties when Valley City lost all 12 games in their conference and then started a winning streak in tournament play which carried them to the state championship.

FIRST IN SCHOLARSHIP

Norman Ennebold, whom we mentioned recently as being an outstanding athlete of the conference and at the same time a high ranking valedictorian of the senior class. Ennebold has a four year average of 94.25 percent and is president of his class.

MAY NEED CONSOLATION

It is our guess that Coach Kelton of Warren, will next year have to look back to the feats his team performed in 1938-39 for consolation. Not only does Warren lose all their champion regulars but will next season be playing only the big schools in the new Northeast Conference. Coach Kelton and his boys have plenty of work cut out for themselves next year, but they can remember that Warren was the only high school team in Illinois in 1938-39, to win all scheduled games.

PREDICTIONS

Next season is a long way off but right now we want to go on record as predicting that the 1939-40 season in the Northeast loop will find Crystal Lake, Niles, and Leyden the leading contenders while in the old Northwest league it looks like Wauconda and Palatine. Wauconda will have three of the best regulars returning while the Pirates will have five of seven lettermen back, and four of them will be on the scene until 1941.

WE LIKE NILES

If Niles defeats Highland Park in the first round at Waukegan this week, they will be our picks to win the tournament. It is our contention that this pair are the strongest in the Region right now.

TURN DOWN OFFER

Grant Butler in the Des Plaines Suburban Times states that Elgin offered Dundee $50 expense money to play the opening game in the new Elgin gym, but that Dundee turned it down. We don't blame him. Such a game would have brought a gross return of not less than $500 if we are any judge of the Dundee drawing power.

ELGIN VS. DUNDEE

There seems little question but what Elgin and Dundee will meet in the regional finals at Dundee Saturday night. Then both will compete again in the sectional next week at Elgin and it's possible they may meet again there. That tourney at Elgin should be a big attraction as the best teams in the state are up in this section according to the critics.

STILL A WINNER

We got hold of a Blue Island paper the other day and notice that their lightweights took second this year in the South Suburban League. Dixon, who used to coach the Palatine grade school boys so successfully, is lightweight coach at Blue Island.

RAISE PRICE

Tickets for the state tournament to be held March 15-17 have raised in price from $1.50 to $2.00 for student season tickets and from $3.00 to $3.50 for adults. We hope Pat Harmon of Champaign is right about Dundee repeating this year, but we cannot see it. We think that their lack of reserve strength and small size will tell in a hard tournament grind.

RELAY APRIL 1

The Oak Park Relays will be held Saturday, April 1. This big indoor meet is the climax to the indoor season for the big schools and the first event in the training program of the small schools without indoor practice facilities.

Next Sunday at Bensenville the Harlem Globe Trotters play the town team and it ought to be a great show. We saw the negro team play out in Iowa back in 1929 and fully expect to put on an exhibition of ball handling and fancy tricks. The game should be a big attraction.

TRIPLE BENEFIT SCHEDULED

Friday the Palatine Black Forest team which has been winning most of its starts will close the home season when they meet the high scoring Anderson Service team of McHenry. This outfit recently beat the Waukegan Moore 51-39 and Arlington 73-32. The Palatine high school team will meet the town lightweight team, the Kunze Oilers in the preliminary. A dance will follow the games. The evening is a band and Lions playground benefit.

Arlington Luthers Upset Des Plaines

Undefeated Champs Victim of Arlington's Best Game of Year

By ALBERT BRODAN

Arlington playing their best game of the year handed Des Plaines a 33-30 defeat in the Lutheran basketball league at the Arlington Heights high school gym, last week-end.

Arlington put on a second half drive that scored 26 points. The score at the quarter was 3-1 in favor of Des Plaines and they still led 11-5 at the half.

In the third quarter, Arlington scored 24 points to Des Plaines 10 points mostly through Red Weisgerber's drive-in shots that netted him four buckets. Red played a swell game on defense to bring the ball off the bank board. The score was 29-21 in favor of Arlington at the third quarter.

Carl Klein played one of his best games this year and hit 7 points. Arlington's whole team really looked good on defense and offense and played the kind of ball fans have been waiting for.

Katschuck led Des Plaines' attack with 16 points and was really their whole team on offense. This was Des Plaines' first defeat in the second round and their second defeat all year. They are really missing Herb Bresman, and his loss will handicap them the rest of the year.

Glenview Trims River Grove. Glenview handed River Grove a 32 to 15 beating with Pete Meyer making 17 points to lead Glenview's attack.

Glenview led 14 to 10 at the half and 23 to 13 at end of the third quarter.

A. Meyer was second high with 7 points. Koy was high point man with 5 points. This victory keeps Glenview in the race for the second round.

Palatine Overtakes Roselle

Palatine played an inspired second half and beat Roselle 33-31. A. Freise went out on fouls in the third quarter and after this they were handicapped in size. The score was 14-12 in favor of Roselle at the end of the third quarter, still in favor of Roselle.

Palatine put on a fourth quarter drive and overtook Roselle mostly through shooting of C. Haemker who played one of the best games he played all year.

C. Haemker was high point man with 18 points. G. Dierking was high for Roselle with 11 points. This defeat knocks Roselle out of second position and a possible chance for the title.

Itasca Trims Park Ridge

Itasca slaughtered Park Ridge 52-33. This was Park Ridge's seventh defeat and this victory gives Itasca a crack at the title because their remaining game is with Des Plaines. E. Hoppensteadt was high with 20 points and Elberts ran second with 14 points. Brandt was high with 10 points for the losers.

Arlington played good ball for the second night and handed Norwood Park a 40-34 beating. Arlington led all the way and Earl Weisgerber finally got off his knees and made 19 points which was as many points as he made all year.

Arlington found a new star in Mel Garms, who played a nice game in the last quarter.

Norwood Park played good ball, but were handicapped by size. Stan Fill again was high with 10 points. Colburn hit four long shots to be second high with 8 points.

Arlington now has a slim chance for second place.

Palatine Rallies Win Both Games At Bensenville

Nip and Tuck Affairs Turned Into Last Quarter Routs

Palatine teams played their best ball of the season Tuesday when they defeated Bensenville in a double bill on the Benson court in the final conference games. Pirate heavies scored a 44-24 triumph while the lights were winning 28-15. Palatine got hot on shots in the final quarter of both games to make the results one sided.

The first half of the heavyweight game was nip and tuck and the lead changed hands several times. Just before the intermission Buenzow hit two long shots to give Palatine an 18-13 edge. Scoring was about even in the third period with the Pirates leading 20-23, but in the final quarter the Palatine boys scored 14 points to one for the Bisons. Hahnfeldt scored four times in this rally.

The individual who kept the Bisons in the running early in the game was Escorcia who scored nine points in the first half. Hollinger paced both aggregations in scoring with 14 points. Escorcia and Matthews of the Bisons counted 11 and 9 respectively, and Hahnfeldt of Palatine still in favor of Roselle.

Palatine hit 21 goals in 59 shots and Bensenville scored 10 out of 54. Palatine's percentage was the best of the year being slightly over 35%. It was the final game for Buenzow and Stewart of Palatine while all the Bensenville team except Baumgartner made their final appearance. Twenty-eight of the Pirate points were made by sophomores.

Elbert Scores 17 Points

The Palatine lights, led by the diminutive Capt. Elbert, rang up 15 points in the final quarter to grab a 28-15 victory while Bensenville, as in the heavyweight game, was talking but one counter. Starting the final period the little Bisons had a 14-13 lead, but Elbert ran wild to turn the game into a rout. Elbert scored 17 of the Palatine points and 11 of them were collected in the final seven minutes.

Palatine held a 11-7 lead at the half. The loss of Linderman on fouls hurt the Bisons in the last half as he was their high scorer with six points. Howes scored six for Palatine.

The results of the games left the Palatine heavies in third place in the conference with eight wins and two losses while Bensenville completed the season with five victories and as many defeats. Palatine and Bensenville lights finished the season in a tie for fifth place in the league with six victories and four defeats.

Grant 'Packs A Wallop' After All, Tourneyists Find

Conference Teams Surprised By Defeat In Wauconda Melee

Hebron won the district tourney at Wauconda Saturday night by defeating Grant in the final 46-11 in a very one-sided game. Grant, the surprise team of the tourney, having beaten Richmond, Wauconda, and Elia in a series of startling upsets to advance to the finals, reverted to earlier season form and was no match for the smooth working Hebron quintet.

Hebron will oppose Maine and Grant will meet Crystal Lake in first round games at Dundee in the Regional Tourney this week.

Unlike the tournament of a year ago, which was marked by close scores and three overtime games, the Wauconda district games with the exception of two, were rather one-sided. Inspired by a late season victory over Antioch, their first win of the year, and by a great showing against Richmond in the opening game of the tourney, the Grant team coached by Dan Werhan, was unstopable until the final.

Come From Behind

Against Wauconda the winning spirit of the Grant team was most evident. Trailing by six points with three minutes to play, Koch and Wheeler of Grant, put on a long shooting exhibition that in two minutes gave them a three point lead. Wauconda was off in their shooting from the field and missed eight out of nine free throws, but the surprise afforded by the scrappy shooting of Fox Lake lads, whom they had beaten easily on two former occasions, was probably the reason.

Most critics thought that the Grant luck in shooting would run out, but it was even more accurate and sensational in the Elia semi-final game. The Grant boys hit from all angles and even though Wesner's team was playing bang up ball it could not cope with the smaller kids from the North. Grant boys were all over the court cutting off passes, sinking impossible shots, and outjumping their taller opponents. The game ended 35-28.

Go Basketball Crazy

The town of Fox Lake or Ingleside, whichever you prefer, just about went basketball crazy for three days and had their band and drum corps cheering section on hand for the final, but boys cannot play superhuman ball four nights in a row and the big delegation was due for a disappointment. However, for Grant to get into the finals and advance to the Regional tourney, was a greater victory under the circumstances than the winning of the tourney by Hebron's classy aggregation.

Bronchos Below Par

Barrington met Hebron in the semi-finals and fourth the McHenry county team in far from top form; but the Bronchos were below par also and lost 24-14. Barrington, weakened by the flu and lacking some of their players, had to come from behind in the last period to beat Northbrook 17-11 in the opening round. Northbrook led 7-3 at the half and 11-8 going into the final period.

N. W. Softball League To Make Final Plans At Organization Meet

The Northwest Suburban Softball League (fast pitching), will hold an important organization meeting next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Edison Park Community House located at North-west highway and Oakshove ave. Several North Shore teams that played in the tourney at Des Plaines last fall, have been contacted and will play in this organization.

It is expected that Fells Clothiers of Winnetka, Schaefer's teams of Wilmette, Comm. Ericksons of Evanston and Glencoe will enter a team in this tourney.

Any other team in this vicinity interested is invited to send a representative to this meeting. This league will operate all during the season playing twilight and night softball which will be conducted on a major league basis as this softball sport venture will be the only inter-town activity in progress.

It is important that all teams interested, be represented as vital discussion of permanent organization and election of league officers if a quorum is present.

Smith-Dawson to Meet New York Renaissance Five

Colored Quintet Play At Arlington Friday, at 9:15

As a fitting climax to their year's program the Smith and Dawson five meet the world colored champs, the famous "Renaissance" of New York. For 15 years these Rens have dominated the scene in whatever gym they have appeared. Their just name is due to their clever play and clean type of game.

Led by genial but tricky "Fat" Jenkins, the colored Rens will trot out practically the same lineup which last year ran up a record of 121 wins against 14 losses.

Those sepien giants, "Tarzan" Cooper and "Wee Willie" Smith, alternate at the pivot position. Eyre Saich is the spark plug of the Rens while Johnny Isaacs is another standout performer.

Since their organization 15 years ago the Rens have won the amazing total of 1464 games and lost but 232.

GOOD THOUGHTS

My friends, let us try to follow the Saviour's steps; let us remember all day long what it is to be men; that it is to have every one whom we meet for our brother in the sight of God.

—Charles Kingsley.

It is safe to say that we can all love a little more, be a little more kind, have a little more sympathetic understanding, and then, our proclamation about the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man will be void of hypocrisy and deceit.

—Rev. Minot Savage.

He that loveth, lieth, runneth and rejoiceth; he is free and is not bound. He giveth all for all, and hath all in all; because he resteth in One Highest above all things, from whom all that is good flows and proceeds.

—Thomas a Kempis.

Bringing the fellowship of love into one's daily affairs blesses and hallows every human relationship; it kindles the fire of brotherliness in every association of life, and uplifts thought to apprehend what blessedness a universal fellowship based on divine Love may mean to the race.

Leading Role Her

birthday present. Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer helped Lynne Carver celebrate her twentieth birthday anniversary by awarding her the first leading role of her career. She plays opposite Lew Ayres in "Young Dr. Kildare" at the Arlington Theatre Sunday and Monday.

Miss Carver won the role after considerable testing, during which Maureen O'Sullivan and Jean Parker were two prominent candidates.

Also playing on Sunday and Monday is "A Christmas Carol." Gene and Kathleen Lockhart, who play Bob Cratchit and his wife in "A Christmas Carol," enacted their parts and at the same time rehearsed for a home production of the story. The Lockharts for years have staged it at home every Christmas, with their daughter, June, also in the picture, and neighborhood children in the cast. Mrs. Lockhart, born in Charles Dickens' birthplace in England, is a member of the Dickens Fellowship.

The Hardy Family

score again! This time it's "Out West with the Hardys," which stars Sunday at the Catlow theater for a showing of two days. For all around entertainment and family night at the movies, it's tops. There's never a dull moment from the time that Mickey Rooney, as Andy, has his weekly tiff with the best girl Polly Benedict, until the Judge, tired and weary, packs his little group back to Carvel after a hectic but eventful vacation on a western ranch.

New comedy has been added to the fifth of the popular Hardy Family series with the casting of little Virginia Weidler in the role of chief heckler of the incorrigible Andy. No matter what he may do in the way of western stunts, Virginia manages to go him one better. Add to this a dramatic plot involving the owners of the ranch, a new romance for Cecilia Parker, and some heart-tugging moments revolving about a pet horse, and there emerges sixty minutes of entertainment that tops "Love Finds Andy Hardy"—and that was tops.

Mack Gordon and Harry Revel, Hollywood song writers whose hits have kept the nation singing and swinging, turn in what is reported to be the finest score of their careers for "Thanks for Everything," the 20th Century-Fox comedy hit coming March 8 and 9 to the Catlow Theater.

Wallace Beery

had the jitters! And all because of a film scene that didn't last more than forty seconds on the screen.

He's ridden horses over cliffs but that didn't bother him. He's worked in a cage with lions and laughed at fear. He's rescued children from burning houses and never given it a second thought.

"But I had to make love, for the first time in twenty years, and it had me worried," said the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer star.

The script is law at a Hollywood motion picture studio, and the script of Beery's new picture, "Stablemates," showing at the Pal Theatre, called for him to go into a "clinch!"

"I'm sort of outa practice when it comes to romance and love-making. I'm used to being tough, not tender," said the veteran actor.

It didn't seem as if Beery would get much help from his partner in romance, for Margaret Hamilton admitted that love scenes had been out of her line for some years.

"I could not decide whether to use the Taylor or Gable technique," said Beery. "Maybe I should have showered her with soft words, kissed her hand like a count, and then drawn her in my arms."

"On the other hand, I think the caveman tactics did the trick. I rushed over, growled 'how about it kid?' kissed her, and got it over with because I was pretty scared by that time. And Miss Hamilton wasn't having the time of her life either, unless she had a swell imagination and got me mixed up with Nelson Eddy."

Mickey Rooney, who teams with Beery in "Stablemates," didn't think Beery had anything to worry about.

"He got all the breaks," complained Mickey. "All I got in the way of love scenes was a kiss from a race horse after she won the big race."

Stablemates will be shown at the Pal theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. It is followed on Wednesday and Thursday by "Girls On Probation."

At Des Plaines

The current double feature attraction at the Des Plaines Theatre, which ends Saturday night consists of that ever delightful Jones Family in "Down on the Farm," and "The Young in Heart" starring Janet Gaynor, Doug Fairbanks, Jr. and Paulette Goddard. The latter film was made from that popular Saturday Evening Post story, "The Gay Ranchman."

On Sunday a very fine double feature attraction opens for a three day run. Jack Benny and Joan Bennett are co-starred in the musical comedy hit, "Artists and Models Abroad." Joan Crawford, Melvyn Douglas, Margaret Sullivan and Robert Young are in the film adaptation of the phenomenally successful stage hit of the same name.

Picks at the Pickwick

Hollywood brings forth a college picture without a football hero. "Spring Madness" with Maureen O'Sullivan and Lew Ayres, was produced on a modern scale with a college background that will give you an amazing insight into the youthful generation of today—a gay comedy romance recommended for the family, plus Ray Milland and Olympic Bratina in "Say It in French"—the latest in ultra-smart screen comedy, round out the bill for this week with a special program for the children Saturday. In addition to "Spring Madness" the first matinee show will have a Popeye Cartoon, Betty Boop Cartoon, Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy in "Unusual Occupations." Older Flying and a most amusing Animal Novelty. Childrens show starts at 2:00. Lights up at 4:15.

Starting Sunday and for three days only—Bing Crosby and Franck Gail in "Paris Honeymoon" with Akim Tamiroff, Shirley Ross and Edward Everett Horton, and Fredric March and Joan Bennett in "Trade Winds" with Ralph Bellamy and Ann Southern—a thrilling adventure story of love and romance.

Wednesday and Thursday—a rest engagement of the year's best

It Happened Here

To the north as one looks cityward is a clear enclosed space of some extent where the dwellings are too low to obstruct the view. On the farther edge of this park-like enclosure the tall buildings rise again to bloom with lights as night falls, lights that spring in every story, circle roofs with coronets, ripple with flashing signs and outline one slim tower in colored jewels; but at the wane and vaporous hour of three o'clock in the morning all the lights are burned out save a scant half dozen for gotten ones here and there. Low in the bare and skeleton branches of the park trees the red shell of the half moon lies a-tiptle like the skull of some Outlander moored in a chill and thickened morass; in the sky a weakened shape as misshapen as a crooked branch idles on its oars, ferryman perhaps of the tenants in that enclosure where the smooth and turfed dwellings are too low to obstruct the view. He was just an Italian pedlar at the back door, so small, so dejected and ill looking; this somewhat sequestered nook is his beat where he offers his wares for sale with varying fortune. "I been walking all day and I ain't had a bit of luck so far," he said, discouraged at seeing a new face at our door, "but I gotta keep going—everybody's gotta keep going, that's all we can do," he looked up bleakly. "Only my faith in the Lord keeps me going." "His—in the long way that I must tread alone will lead my steps aright." None the less a sublime sentiment when voiced by a bit of foreign flotsam.

S'Amuser.

Now it will cost nothing for you, as a motorist, to have for your car the same kind of inspection service that every railroad applies to its locomotives. The railroads have learned that regular inspection and prompt correction of minor defects prevent costly tie-ups and repairs. You can apply the same principle to your car by letting us check it once each month—without cost to you. By promptly discovering the need for minor adjustments and tuning up, you will be saved the trouble and expense of costly repair operations later on.

LUCILE SCHNEIDER, Editor

Wenzlaffs Return From 3-Week Southern Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Erick Wenzlaff returned home last Friday from a three weeks tour in the south. Their first destination was Fort Meyer, Florida, where they spent five days and which they found the most restful part of their trip in spite of numerous sight seeing trips while there. A cousin of Mr. Wenzlaff, spends the winter months there and he directed their stay. They especially enjoyed swimming in the gulf and several fishing trips.

One day they visited Silver Springs, where they were thrilled by the underwater scenery from glass bottomed boats, where the clearness of the water makes visibility even better than above water. Fish are especially numerous as fishing is forbidden in the springs, it being a veritable fish's paradise.

Another day they enjoyed a tour of inspection through a sugar factory during the height of production. These factories operate only about two months of the year.

Two days were spent sight-seeing about Miami. Before leaving Florida they also visited the famous Bok Singing tower, but were sorry not to have made the visit on a concert day, the concerts being held only four days a week.

On leaving Florida, they headed for New Orleans where they arrived in time for the Mardi Gras festivities. Hotel accommodations in New Orleans were almost impossible to secure because of the Mardi Gras, however, they were directed to a private home through the Chamber of Commerce where they had very nice accommodations with a family who formerly lived in Illinois and was happy to house Illinois guests.

They enjoyed the Mardi Gras parades, different each day, as well as other festivities and sight-seeing tours. However, the jostling through the terrific crowds proved very tiring.

The Mardi Gras celebration closes with the beginning of Lent and the Wenzlaffs were impressed with the almost abrupt termination of the hilarious celebration at midnight of Shrove Tuesday as the church bells tolled out beginning of Lent.

The Wenzlaffs stopped off at Houghton, Louisiana on their way home where they visited Mrs. Martha Lemke and Miss Hannah Becker. They found traveling good, except for about 100 miles through Tennessee on their way down where the worst snow storm since 1918 had struck just before they reached the state.

Royal Neighbors Meet At Morrison Hotel

Mrs. Geo. Allison, Mrs. Aug. Grewe and Miss A. Schneider, the oracle, recorder and reporter, respectively, of Wheeling Camp Royal Neighbors of America, attended a meeting for those officers of all Cook county camps, which was held in the Cameo room of the Morrison hotel, last Thursday. 247 officers were present, representing 96 camps.

The principal guest speakers for the meeting were Miss Erna Barthel, Supreme recorder and Mrs. Frances Torjelson, chairman of the Board of Supreme managers, both of whom brought vital messages to their audience. Opportunity was also given for questions from the audience which were discussed and answered as far as possible.

A surprise birthday gift was presented to the Supreme Recorder consisting of $23,000.00 of new insurance written just in time to be presented at this meeting. The Royal Neighbors are an independent, Fraternal Insurance Society, the largest and strongest of their kind, and rank high in regular insurance circles.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hugo both suffered a prolonged attack of the flu recently. We are pleased to note that they are able to be up again. Mr. J. A. Rothenbach and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nielsen proved themselves good neighbors to the Hugos during their illness, in assisting them with the house work and farm chores.

Little Ronald Hotopp was taken down with a hard case of the flu the first of the week. His mother and Daddy both had attacks earlier but fortunately were well enough to care for Ronnie.

Miss Blanche Rogalski was stricken with an acute attack of appendicitis last week. She was rushed to St. Anne's hospital, Chicago, where she was operated. For several days her condition was very critical, requiring the attendance of three nurses, however, we are very glad to learn that she is convalescing rapidly at the present.

Friends here were sorry to learn that Mr. Jacob Ott of Deerfield is in the Highland Park hospital where he is to undergo an operation late this week.

The fire department was called to the John Bieber farm last Thursday when the garage was threatened by an overheated stove. Fortunately the boys arrived in time to extinguish the blaze before it had gained much headway, which in the high wind, would have made short work of the building and perhaps of others.

Friday readers who enjoy playing cards and buncos, are reminded of the Eastern Star card party to be held at the Riverside Inn this evening.

Mrs. Clarence Williams was removed to the Swedish Covenant hospital last week. A minor operation was performed on Thursday, but it was deemed advisable to delay further operation for another week to give the patient opportunity to build up. While not seeming to have any serious ailment, Mrs. Williams had been slipping into a run down condition, which became aggravated several weeks ago. We sincerely hope the operation may prove successful in restoring her to a full measure of health.

The Walter Scanlon family motored to Wilmette on Sunday, where a family gathering was held at the home of their brother. The occasion was a stork shower for a sister of Mrs. Scanlon, who resides in Chicago.

Thursday, March 9. The regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society will be held in the church.

Ancients Were Good Builders
An aqueduct over 2,000 years old helps bring drinking water into Athens. But the ancients built these arches well, says a writer in the Washington Post. Some in Europe, raised by Romans before Christ was born, serve as railroad bridges. To supply cities, Greek and Roman engineers chose a reservoir at a high altitude. They let gravity pull the water downhill by building aqueducts through hills and over valleys. Thus, in 600 B. C., the old Greeks bored a mile-long aqueduct through a mountain to bring water into Samos.

DesPlaines Fixes Charges for Rural Fire Fighting

Those who reside in the vicinity of Des Plaines can secure fire protection service at a fixed charge hereafter. The city council has authorized contracts covering two classes of service. The farmer can either pay $25 in advance every five years and $25 for every fire call, or he can agree to pay $100 every time the fire department is called to his place.

Fire department is costing the taxpayers of the city between nine and ten thousand dollars a year, or an average of $4.25 per taxpayer. About a third of the service rendered by the department in the past year has been on fire outside the city limits. Sometimes the department receives a donation for their services. Sometimes they don't even get a verbal "thank you." In either case, while the firemen and the equipment are out of town, Des Plaines people are not getting the fire protection which they are paying for.

The proposed contracts provide that in case of fires occurring inside the city and outside the limits at the same time the city property will receive first attention from the department.

School Caucus At Mt. Prospect

A caucus meeting for the purpose of electing candidates for President and two trustees of the Board of Education of this School District, will be held on next Tuesday evening, March 7, at 8:00 p. m. in the public school building.

A president of the School Board is elected each year and trustees are elected for three year terms, the terms of two trustees expiring each year. R. E. Salzman is president of the School Board and has served in that capacity for six consecutive years.

The two trustees whose terms are expiring are A. G. Carlson and Al. Dresser. Carlson has served on the Board for three years, in the capacity of secretary and Dresser has been a trustee for six years. The three remaining trustees are H. W. Carlson, Elmer Hauptly and Louis Holmbeck.

Everyone interested in the progress and policies of the public school in this district should come out to this caucus meeting and help nominate candidates who will carry on the splendid work of the men now in office. Shamefully little credit is given to the men who donate their time and services to the operation and conduct of School Board affairs, yet the function of the School Board is a very important one and it behooves everyone of us to take an active part in helping to nominate candidates that will continue to conduct the affairs of the public schools in this district in a manner commendable to the district.

SCOUT MEETING MARCH 11

The council mobilization of scouts and scouters of the Northwest Suburban Council which was to have been held in connection with Boy Scout Week, will be held Saturday, March 11, at the Maine township high school.

'America's Greatest Need'

The accompanying letter of Calvin Mitchell, Arlington Heights, addressed to Geo. V. Denny, Jr., Town Meeting of the Air, voices the opinion of a private American citizen who has made a study of politics and economic conditions in this country today.

According to Monday's Tribune, many prominent Democrats claim that President Roosevelt's policies are not the cure that was expected. Mr. Mitchell's plan may be the one that would succeed in bringing about the security that this country needs. He at least has a plan to offer, which is saying a lot.

Arlington Heights, Ill.
December 20, 1938
Mr. Geo. V. Denny, Jr.,
New York, New York.

Enclosed find article on the needs of America which may not be considered, for Money Bunch and the Ruters have such a strangle hold on the nations of this earth that no cheap politician dares to cheap a word in opposition. The so-called "Free Press" is busy collecting pay for publishing Money Bunch's sophisticated lawyers' arguments to mislead the electorate. These sophisticated can prove that the Supreme Ruler is a devil and that the devil is a jolly good fellow. The Free Press enjoy printing Vox Pop letters that suit them for which they pay nothing. That's Free Press for you, but no answers are given to questions on the money question or ideas that might threaten the "status quo."

Money Bunch newspapers and the Ruters stigmatize originators of new ideas as "crackpots" and try to smother them with ridicule just as, in ages past, philosophers who taught the truth and advanced new ideas were persecuted, crucified, or burned at the stake as crackpots; but now, these same teachers are revered as the Saviors of the world.

The "Town Meeting of the Air" speakers talk generalities but are shy on proposed remedies for the apparent wrongs that have and are forcing the people to beggary. I advise that more stress be placed on remedies.

The fluctuations in prices during the year, e. g. — from $17.00 down to $2.71 per 100; building lots $2500 down to no sale at any price, seems to me to have been caused by Money Bunch's planned manipulations of the money supply for circulation.

Yours very respectfully,
Calvin Mitchell,
Author of "Crater of Gold"

FIRST AID CONTEST FOR SCOUTS IS NEXT MONDAY

The council-wide contest to decide the troop to represent the Northwest Suburban Council in the Sectional First Aid contest will be held next Monday evening, in the gymnasium of the Maine township high school.

The winner of this contest will receive the Council Trophy and will compete in the sectional contest to be held Saturday evening, March 18. The council represented in the sectional contest are: The North Shore Area with headquarters in Highland Park, The Evanston, Oak Park and Northwest Suburban Councils.

The First Aid committee who are making arrangements for this contest are: E. J. Anderson, chairman, Norman Brown, Alfred Schmidt, Jr. and Harry P. Koelling of Park Ridge, E. H. Roden and Dr. S. A. Purves of Des Plaines, Henry Lipofsky and Alfred Bateman of Barrington.

Under the benign influence of the U. S. Constitution, which encourages liberal thought and protects the people in their rights to Religion, all churches of America seem to have imbued the spirit of toleration in that, to their glory, all our churches have issued scathing denunciations of the persecutions of minorities. No wonder the "Down Trodden" of the world sing "God Bless America."

Still, all must agree that our representative system of government has failed and that legislators with absolute powers to do as they please with our laws, lives and property have created a tangled mess of overlapping U. S., State and Commission laws and taxation that no court can understand or unravel, and a boss ridden ward heeler partisan control that gives the grafters positions of trust has produced a condition in which graft permeates all departments of the public service from top to bottom.

The greatest need of America today is an unscrubbing of our laws and a drastic change in our law making procedure that will let the people say what shall be the law of the land. For thirty years the writer of this article has advocated an amendment to the Constitution to provide for the "Initiative Commission Referendum," that is, each political organization shall have the right to have an Initiative Commission to prepare its party's proposed code of laws and code of law procedure for the United States of America to be submitted to a vote of the people to determine which proposed codes shall be adopted, and that all State Constitutions shall conform to this amendment.

This would put to work our ablest, honest philosophers on economic questions in a competitive contest to invent the best laws that can be devised by man and let the people be the supreme judges as to their merits. Any code of law accepted by a direct vote of the people would meet with general acquiescence; for the people would hold the right to correct mistakes without a long, useless fight with plutocratic dictators and their hired politicians. The causes for the existence of partisan hatreds, communists, or revolutionary ideas would disappear. The people would engage in friendly discussions as to the feasibility of all proposed laws or codes of law. Laws so enacted could not be annulled, vetoed or repealed except by a vote of the people. Courts would interpret the people's laws, but any judge who misinterprets the law must be subject to recall by a vote of the people.

In the same way codes of international law could be voted by the people of the world. Nearly all people want peace and surely would vote to outlaw war.

The greatest immediate need of America today is that Congress should, without delay, take money creating power away from the Reserve Banks and money schemers and restore Constitutional money by creating U. S. owned banks of issue, and instead of conglomeration of different kinds of dollars, issue just one kind of dollar, the legal tender treasury note, in quantities sufficient to supply credit wherever there is "good security" to maintain an even trend in business and to prevent fluctuations in prices.

It is a known fact that heretofore, the masters of the money creating trusts have planned a shortage of the money in circulation to bring on fluctuations in prices and hard times to enable them to control the governments and wealth of the world.

Prospect Heights

Last Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Steele entertained Miss Charlotte Brown, Mr. Ed. Dowling, and Dick's brother-in-law, Ardan Hyatt, all of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Nielsen, Mr. Curt Trommer, Mr. Paul Weck, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Rauens, of Prospect Heights. Dick served a delicious fresh lobster dinner, which was enjoyed by all of her guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ledyard entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Mueller, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Cullen of Chicago on Sunday.

On Saturday Laverne Miller attended the Senior Prom, and on returning home, her escort, in backing out of the drive, went in the ditch, and Laverne had to get Papa Ed. out of bed at 2:30 a. m. in order to pull the boy friend out.

The Millers entertained Mr. and Mrs. Fred Krueckeberg of Chicago at dinner on Sunday.

Harry and Maud Williams entertained Maud's nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Howe, of Waukegan, on Sunday. This was their first visit out to see their aunt and uncle at Prospect Heights, and they certainly enjoyed it very much.

Mrs. Miller is still suffering from a very bad infection in her foot, and during the past week she was confined to bed with a very bad cold.

On Friday evening, March 3, the Smith & Dawson basketball team will play the New York Renissants. This team is composed of all Negroes, and is one of the very best teams in these United States. This match will be played at the high school in Arlington Heights and will start promptly at 8:00 p. m. Anyone in the community who desires to go, may meet at the Service Station, and go over in the bus with Bob or Dick (The Baron). The bus makes the trip every Wednesday to the regular games, and there is always plenty room for more of the folks. This service is free of charge to all residents who wish to make use of it.

We again welcome into our community another new family, Mr. and Mrs. Stegman, moved into their home on Elmhurst road Tuesday. The following communications were received addressed to "The Residents of Prospect Heights."

"Dear Friends:
"My moving into the new school has been made more pleasurable than ever by the reception of your lovely gifts. The flowers were beautiful, and the pen and blotter I shall have always as a remembrance of you and your thoughtfulness. I regret very much not having been able to be present at the dedication ceremony. I should like to have thanked you personally, not only for these recent gifts, but for your many kindnesses in the past and for your friendly spirit.
Sincerely yours,
"Genevieve Reynolds, Teacher."

"On behalf of the children of the school, I should like to thank you for the ice cream and cookies. They were delicious, and we enjoyed them very much.
Sincerely yours,
"Bill Danielson, Jr.,
"President of Achievement Club."

At this time we are glad to report that most of the sick in the community are well on the way to recovery, and many of them are now able to be back to work and to

Allis Chalmers

Day Is Opening Of New Garage

Allis Chalmers tractors and machinery are said to be the fastest selling tractors and equipment in the low class field today. "As Chevrolet dominates its class in the automotive world, so does Allis Chalmers," states N. Lattof, local representative of that company. "It is but natural that a garage selling the most popular low priced motor car, should also sell Allis Chalmers machinery."

A general invitation is being extended by Mr. Lattof to the general public to attend the spring opening of Allis Chalmers Monday, March 6, which will also be the official opening day for Arlington Chevrolet Co. in their new garage at 32 South Evergreen.

Such a double event calls for a big celebration. Mr. Lattof has arranged an evening entertainment that includes an attractive program by the Texas Rangers of KMOX radio fame. There will be movies and door prizes. "Bring the entire family," says Mr. Lattof.

Allis Chalmers machinery need no introduction to the farmer. The display will be open all day for inspection with the big entertainment in the evening.

early this year, so that she can get out to work in the garden, as they have all of their trees ordered. Mr. Buehrer is American of German descent, and Mrs. Buehrer is also American of German descent, with a little Irish thrown in for "Good Luck."

The Buehrers have no family, and no pets.

Walter Joost, Algonquin and State rd., reported to county highway police this week that pigeons valued at $16 were missing from his farm.

Located 8 Miles East of Elgin on U. S. 20 — Ontarioville

Less than 5 minutes is required to attach this 2-row corn planter to the Farmall and the outfit is ready to plant 15 to 20 acres a day. It is available on either checkrow planter or hill-drop drill.

Come In and See the New Quick-Attachable
2-Row Planter . . . Built for the McCormick-Deering FARMALL

In the design of this new Quick-Attachable Farmall Planter the engineers have retained all of the advantages of the famous McCormick-Deering "100 series" Planters. Yet, it is a tractor planter, through and through, built for fast, efficient work with the Farmall 12 and Farmall 20. The new Quick-Attachable feature enables you to attach this 2-row planter to the Farmall and get under way just about as quickly as you can hitch a team to a horse-drawn planter. It is supplied as either a hand-lift planter—with new ratchet-type lifting lever—or a power-lift planter designed to attach to the Farmall hydraulic power lift. Ask us to show you this compact, direct-connected 2-row McCormick-Deering Farmall planter and quote you on the outfit completely equipped for your work.
